

Saturday - April 4, 2009
FREE PUBLIC EVENT - FREE PARKING

Hardin Hall - 3310 Holdrege Street - UNL East Campus

ALL DAY 9:00am - 5:00pm

<http://www.cpsws.unl.edu>

Weatherscapes on the Plains

Photo by Ken Dewey - <http://nebraskaweatherphotos.org>

Featuring storm researchers and videos, kid-friendly activities, a weather balloon launch, storm spotter training and photo exhibits.

Randy Cerveny  Arizona State University "Freaks of the Storm: The Strangest True Weather Stories"	Mike Umscheid  Under the Meso "Photographing Storms on the Plains"	Adam Houston  Department of Geosciences, UNL "Using an Unmanned Aircraft to Probe Tornadoes"	Joe Schaefer  Director, Storm Prediction Center "U.S. Tornadoes during the Past 12 Months"	Barb Mayes  NWS, Omaha "Anatomy of Two Violent June 2008 Storms in Eastern Nebraska"	Brian Smith  NWS, Omaha "Any Wind Can Kill" Storm Spotter Training Workshop
--	--	--	---	--	---

DON'T FORGET TO VISIT:
 Family-Friendly Exhibits at Weatherfest
 2nd floor Hardin Hall
 Lincoln Camera Club Photo Exhibit
 1st floor Hardin Hall

The University of Nebraska—Lincoln does not discriminate based on gender, age, disability, race, color, religion, marital status, veteran's status, national or ethnic, origin or sexual orientation.