

Saturday - March 27, 2010
FREE PUBLIC EVENT - FREE PARKING

Hardin Hall - 3310 Holdrege Street - UNL East Campus

ALL DAY 9:00am - 4:00pm

<http://www.cpsws.unl.edu>

Celebrating Ten Years of Storm Preparedness

Photo by Ken Dewey - <http://nebraskaweatherphotos.org>

Featuring storm researchers and videos, kid-friendly activities, a weather balloon launch, storm spotter training and photo exhibits.

Vince Miller
Prairiescapes Photo Tours

"Photographing The Weather and Scenery of the Great Plains"

Greg Carbin
Storm Prediction Center

"Top Ten Weather Events of the Last Ten Years"

Barb Mayes
National Weather Service, Omaha

"Nebraska Severe Weather, Year 2009 and Looking Ahead to 2010"

Jack Williams
USA TODAY and American Meteorological Society

"The Ultimate Guide to America's Weather"

Scott Blair
National Weather Service, Topeka

"Tornadoes Impacting Interstates- Stay in the Car or Head to the Ditch?"

Brian Smith
National Weather Service, Omaha

"Storm Spotter Training Workshop" - Open to the Public!

DON'T FORGET TO VISIT:
 Family-Friendly Exhibits at Weatherfest
 2nd floor Hardin Hall
 Lincoln Camera Club Photo Exhibit
 1st floor Hardin Hall

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln does not discriminate based on gender, age, disability, race, color, religion, marital status, veteran's status, national or ethnic, origin or sexual orientation.